“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. I am truly sorry for your loss. A word of comfort in your time of sorrow. As you cherish fond memories of your loved one, also know that the God of all comfort is near providing comfort and hope during this difficult time. (Revelation 21:4). Please, know this Jehovah is a strong refuge for those grieving because of the loss of a family member or even friend. He is near to those "crushed at heart" and "broken in spirit" (Psalms 9:9).##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ God Bless the Baldwin family in their time of sorrow. I only knew this young man from him working at the Family Dollar store on W. Warren. I just stood in line at the grocery store behind him and chatted with him while we were waiting to be helped. He always, always had a big smile on his face and never in an unpleasant mood. He will definately be missed when I go into that store. Family, stay strong and know that to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord.##imported-begin##Ms, White##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ Dear Baldwin family, I am so sadden to learn of your loss, I know words cannot express the grief you feel. We will all look to the time spoken of at Isaiah 25:8 that says in part"He will actually swallow up death forever..."###imported-begin###Mrs. Jefferson###imported-end###

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy, for the loss of your loved one, Christopher. Regardless of age young or old it is always devastating when we loss a loved one. May you find comfort in knowing that, he is in God's memory and awaiting a resurrection, this can give us solace and kindle our desire to carry on with life. Yes, we can confidently look to the future when Jehovah God. the Giver of life, will bury death forever. What blesing it will be when we can rightly ask: "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?--- 1 Corinthians 15:55.###imported-begin###Deborah Gipson###imported-end###
