“ Dear Clarence Nixon Sr. Family Members

As a colleague of Clarence Jr., my wife and I wish to send our deepest sympathy in the passing of Clarence Sr. The loss of a family beacon and elder is always a difficult passing. We like to think that they have passed over the horizon to continue to lead the way for us yet behind. While they are out of sight, they are still alive in our memory and in our actions. Rejoice in memories of times past and times to come. Know that your loss and joyous memories are in our thoughts and prayers.

Warmest thoughts,

*John and Anne Dossey##imported-begin##John

“ Mr. Nixon was a very good man and like a second father to me. I am a friend of Mr. Nixon's son Delvis. Devis and I have attended school together at Birney Elementary, Winterhalter Junior High, Henry Ford High School and Weetern Michigan University in Kalamazoo, MI. I became very close to Mr. Nixon in high school and college. Delvis and I would play basketball and football together, go to clubs and mix records. Mr. Nixon was a very good man. He was hard working, Christian and had a great sense of humor! Since I live in Kalamasoo with my wife, stepson and soon to be son, I have not seen Mr. Nixon in quite some time. In addition to working, I am completing my Master's Degree at WMU in social work, with my last semester starting this Tuesday. Mr. Nixon always made me feel like one of the family and love you and will miss you. I have a lot of wonderful and funny memories of Mr. Nixon and I will never forgot him! Mr. Nixon, thank you for being a positive role model in my life. Please enjoy your special place in heaven!!

Love always, Kenny##imported-begin##Kenny Martin

“ My heart was heavy as I learned of the passing of Mr. Nixon. Mr. Nixon was a man of integrity, compassion, work ethic and grace. He raised his children with respect and taught them the value of love. He was a man who believed in God and stepped in the truth and faith every day. We have lost a good man.

Rest in pease, Mr. Nixon
I am the sister of Kenny Martin a friend of Delvis Nixon.
