“ It is apparent that the beauty of you lives on through your seed. Although, I did not know you, I've come to know a precious piece of you whom I'm sure you were proud of, your granddaughter, Meredith. She holds the sparkle of a bright future in her eyes and a glimpse of a beautiful soul.

I hope you now are walking in the wonders of the Sky Country and basking in the Sun that never sets.

God bless you and all your love ones forever,

“ To The Carson Family,
You are in my prayers during this difficult time. Mr. Clarence as I called him was a good man. I will always remember him for his love of baseball, his nickname "Rabbit" and the tender, loving care he gave my mother. He will be missed.
