“ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from God found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##s##imported-end##

“ To the Jordan Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Mr. Cleveland. Although I didn't know him personally, death is still something all of us have experienced and it hurts. It has been comforting to me to reflect on God's Word in times like this, drawing strength from him (2 Cor. 1:3,4). Our Creator takes a personal interest in each one of us. He tells us that the 'very hairs of our head are all numbered'(Matthew 10:29). He knows us very well and he knows that death hurts us. So out of love for us he has promised to undue this tragic event and destroy death forever! (1 Cor. 15:26) He also has stated that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more (Revelation 21:4). Those asleep in death are not forsaken, but will be resurrected to life! (John 5:28,29). What a Loving God he is!! May we find comfort in His Word the Bible. May his promises help to make your grief a little easier to bear knowing that he will do all that he has promised, because he dearly loves you and he cannot lie (1 Peter 5:7, Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
