“ To the Williams family, I just want you to know that Cliff was my big brother, and I will never forget when I was ten years old that had it not been for him I may not be here today. The apartment was on fire and they thought I was with them and he came back to look for me, and kept calling me until he heard me, (I was sleep)he grabbed me and took me to safety. I have always remembered that. So many people spoke of how he was a giving person, God allowed him to give me more time on this earth and I will never forget it. He has been that force in my life to help others. May god bless you and keep you in the comfort of his arms and he can and will give you strength. He will be missed.##imported-begin##Gwen A.##imported-end##

“Ninety-one years old - I'm sure conversations about the "old days", and Mr. Williams experiences in life, must have been a joy to listen to. Even though I did not know him personally, I have always had a special fondness for the elderly. There life experiences help me to be a better person, in caring for the needs of others. No matter what age a person dies, it still breaks your heart. According to Psalms 90:10,
Mr. Williams had "special mightiness" to live as long as he did. Yet, 91 years is not enough, when our heavenly Father, Jehovah God intended us to live forever in paradise on earth. Mr. Williams can rest now from death inherited from Adam & Eve, where death ruled as king. (Romans 5:12-21). By means of God's underserved kindness, He has given us the gift of Jesus, who sacrificed his perfect life, so we can have, that "promised" life. God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34; 18) I pray that you will be strengthen, with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. Please throw your burden, upon him, because he cares for you. Draw comfort in the resurrection hope. Revelations 21:3,-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##
