“ Dear

I did not know your loved one personally, but that did not stop me from wanting to offer my sympathy, and let you know you are not alone. We all have been touched by death at one time or another and need comfort during this time.

The Bible offer such comfort at Isaiah 25: 8 Please read it. . I hope it will bring you some comfort to you and your family in the coming years. I hope you will accept my heart-felt condolence.##imported-begin##Deborah Richardson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: Those we have held in our arms for a little while, we will hold in our hearts forever! (arthur unknown). Although I don't know you personally, I still understand the pangs of death, for who among mankind has not lost a loved one to this 'enemy?'. (1 Corinthians 15:26). As you reflect on the life of your precious loved one, Cortez, his legacy and the memories he has left you to treasure, may your hearts be comforted in knowing that Our Loving God also cares for you (1Peter 5:7) He is mindful of your pain, your grief and sorrow and he is anxious to mend your broken hearts and bind up your painful spots. (Psalm 147:3, Rev. 21:4) He promises that: "...the hour is COMING when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28,29). So, yes, even though tears will flow and hearts will pain, God promises that the 'tribulation' will be 'momentary and light' compared with the wonderful future he has prepared for those who love him.(2 Corinthians 4:17) He (God) will wipe away the tears from all faces and DEATH will be no more! (Rev. 21:4) Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us! (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###
