“ *To the Brown Family,
I'm very sorry for the death that you've experienced in your family recently. Especially knowing that i myself was born in 1987. I've just been sharing a comforting scripture with you and similar individuals who have lost dear loved ones in death. John 11:25 says... "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."
I also agree with the bible when it says at Acts 24:15... that there will be a resurrection, of both the righteous and unrighteous!
My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.. please know that I' am thinking of you and your family during this hardship.
Thank you for your time,
Sincerely,

“ It can be difficult to describe the feelings we experience, when we lose someone we love so much. Revelation 21:3-5, Jehovah God promises to do away with pain, death and sorrow forever. Jesus provides comforting words at John 5:28 & 29, “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out”. Luke 23:43 Jesus also said, "You will be with me in paradise". 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolence for the loss of your loved one. Death at any age is tragic and a enemy of mankind, especially when one is so young. During this time of mourning, may you find comfort in persistent prayers as, "the peace of God that excels all thought will guard your heatt and your mental powers." (Philippians 4:7) As you cherish the wonderful memories of Curtis, rest assure that he is in God's memory.##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
