“ I am so sorry for your loss. While few words offer peace during this time, perhaps the thought expressed at Rev 21:3, 4 provide you with comfort and hope to get through it. You have my Deepest Sympathy.##imported-begin##Bobbie Smith##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Thomas family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Thomas family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your baby. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14)"If an able body man dies, can he live again.."This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including your baby, Darionte. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezell##imported-end##

“ My hearts breaks when I read of the death of your baby Darionte. He should have had eternity ahead of him. This was not in our heavenly Father's plan. Jehovah God's original purpose was for all humans to live forever in paradise on earth. We have the opportunity to see Darionte again, as promised in the beginning. Our Grand Creator keeps his promises. As your hearts break, so does Jehovah's heart break. Yes, He does have feelings; because we are made in his image. The time is coming when: "...death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry nor pain will be anymore". (Revelation 21:3.4) The bible teaches that, Darionet and many others have the opportunity to be resurrected to life in a paradise earth soon to be. God cannot lie (Titus 2:1). It's as good as done! Your baby can rest now. But until then, hold on to this precious hope. Isaiah 41:10&13.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It has been said that death has a sting beyond compare. True, there are few things in life (if any) more painful to us than the loss of a family member, especially a baby child. Your baby's life had just begun. It is so unfair that Satan has the power to come in and take away that life from you. (Hebrews 2:14). I wish I had the power to reverse what has been done, but I don't. That task is left to the strong arm of our Creator and he has promised at Hosea 13:14 that he will 'ransom them (our loved ones) from the power of the grave'. At Isaiah 25:8 our Loving Father also promises to 'swallow up death in victory'. And finally, at Revelation 21:3,4, our God, Jehovah promises to wipe out every tear from our eyes because anything causing us 'mourning, outcry, tears or pain' will be gone forever, including death, and he promises that we will see our loved ones again (John 5:28,29). What a beautiful hope and future our God has placed before us and we are assured again at Titus 1:2 that all that he has promised will come true. My heartfelt sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
