“ Dear Hampton Family: Unfortunately I didn't know your son personally, but I can certainly see that he was well loved and respected by many, many people. I am a mother and I have only one son. My heart began to ache when I read of the death of your precious son, Darren. I can't even begin to imagine your hurt and pain. I realize nothing I say can make the pain go away. Death, at any age, is an enemy of mankind, but especially when one is sooo young!(1 Corinthians 15:26). However, I recalled from the Bible a faithful servant who once asked God: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "YES". I know your son's death has left a hole in your heart. My comfort to you is what the Bible says will come true: Man will be able to live out his full potential in a new earth made perfect by Him (Isaiah 65:17-23, Isaiah 45:18, 2Peter 3:13). It is to this New World that Darren will awaken according to God's command (John 5:28,29) and it is by God's spirit that he will live to enjoy life forever (Psalm 37:29)as God intend it to be from the very beginning. (Genesis 1:26-31;2:8,15). May knowing God's purpose for Darren (and all those sleeping in death) bring peace to your mind and comfort to your hearts as you await the fulfillment of His word (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###

“ Darren is (and will always be!) an inspiration for our family, as well as countless others. We remember him as that bright eyed kid in sunday school, performing in "David's Hotshot Slingshot" and "Cool in the Furnace". Our kids listened to, and loved the Hampton 3. We hung out at Bair Lake, and 3 years ago Darren was a camp counselor for our boys at Camp Talahi. And through it all Darren always showed our kids what it meant to carry yourself with poise and grace, how to be a godly young man who uses his talents for the Lord, and how to be strong in the Lord in the face of adversity. But God is GOOD!!!! He used Darren and his talents to bring others closer to Him, and we can only praise Him!!! Please know that our family stands with the Hampton and Hines family in your sorrow - for he will be missed, but we rejoice that he is with JESUS! Please let us know if there is anything you need or let us know how we can be praying for you.

I remember when you, Terrance, Brad, and me watched Old School at DSW in the break room! You told us you sang, but we never heard you so we didn't believe you! “ Our dearest Josephine, Kenny, sons and daughter: words cannot express what we feel towards you and your family, especially at this time of such a "grand" loss.

Deanna, Brandi, and even myself, cried as Bobbie sent us the news of the loss of your son and brother, Darren.

We want you to know that our family and assuredly, our brother, Ted, has always loved and admired your children and you guys as parents; and, today, we salute you for a job well done; for no parent has really done their job unless their children have been taught the things of GOD; but, you did; and, you did it from the cradle to the grave; and, you did it well!

You were great and loving parents to Darren and GOD has honored your faithfulness and because of your training, Darren came to know the Lord and had his name written in the Lamb's Book of Life: because of you! Rejoice! There's absolutely nothing greater you could have given to him! You did your job!

So go on and cry. We're crying too; but, as our spirits continue to weep, we know that you'll see him again; and, we also know that our Lord is soon to come; therefore, we don't weep as those who have no hope: for we know that those who are dead in Christ shall rise first; and those of us who remain shall be caught up to meet HIM: so, kiss Darren goodbye for now but tell him: "I'll meet you in the air"! as we go to that place where there is no more pain and no more suffering and where HE's going to wipe away ever tear from our eyes! GLORY! GLORY!

“ To my Family, my heart goes out to you all. I want you all to know that we were fervently praying, but it was not our will but the Lord's will to be done. We don't understand it at the time, just like when I lost my 26 year old husband. But I do know God sends us a comforter and he will never leave us or forsake us. I listened to Darren's music and I had everyone around me to listen to it. I was proud to say that was my cousin, so I KNOW you all were proud of him as well. I see he touched a lot of people and will forever have nothing but positive memories to cherish. We love ya'll and praying for ya'll strength. “ Greeting on Behalf of the Brown/Willis Family:

*At this time, we would like to extend our condolences to the Hampton Family for the loss of your/our love one Darren. Kenny, Phine, Kenny III, Marlon, Katrina, Kenneth Sr. and Cousin Ellen. Remember that God has a way of balancing situations in our lives, our time, our love etc.. He is the One who determined the day that we would be born and he is also the one who determines the day that we will be call home to glory for those who love Him and Darren loved Him. Why God allows things to happen in our lives is not so much important, as to us understanding that all things are not so cut and dry spiritually, and although we don't always understand the why's, rest assuredly, that all things are in the hands of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Absent from the body is to be present with the LORD, which is a wonderful thing because Darren will never have to suffer from any of the earthly pains that we who are left behind will have to deal with until the Lord takes us home. I am very grateful to the Lord that HE afforded me the opportunity not just to see Darren's beautiful smile/disposition, but to be connected to him by the way of kinsman ship. What's even more wonderful was being able to see God's miracles being manifested thru Darren himself life of 25yrs. I pray that The LORD bless you and keep you; and make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; and give you peace. Num. 6:24-26. I love you and am praying for you.
