“ Willie, Ethel, and Stacey: I am praying that God give you strength during your time of bereavement. Daunte will be dearly missed and always loved. Although it's hard to accept, we all know that he is now in a better place. I will always remember that fabulous smile he always flashed me whenever we saw each other. The good times, the love, the friendship, and most of all, family.##imported-begin##La'Shaun Wortham##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry to hear about the tragedy that your family is now experiencing. May it help you to know that others are here for you and with you. Also remember the promise of our Heavenly Father at the 34th Psalms verse 18 "God is near to those that are broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves."

“ Mr. Willie, Mrs. Ethel, and Stacy,

My Extended Family...

I sat here for a minute trying to figure out where to start, what to say to ease the pain, but I'm at a loss. I know that only time and your faith in God can make this better.

I want you all to know that you are loved by so many as is evident by the outpouring of love in the messages below and the many more that I am sure to come. I pray for peace for your family and that you are able to find solace spiritually in the arms of God and physically in the arms of those of us that love you so very much.

“ Willie, Ethel, and Stacey...I sit here thinking and grieving. You guys are loved by us all. I'm still shocked and saddened by the news. I remember the times Daunte and I talked, he was always cordial and respectful to me and Lois. My family prayers go out to each of you during this time. Our LORD will lift you and comfort you during this trying time. Be strong for each other. You're in my prayers.###imported-begin##Rickie Sanders Sr.###imported-end##

“ Ethel, I couldn't find the words to say, so I'm sending you this poem written by one who truly understands...my heartfelt sympathy to you and yours.

Don't Tell Me...

*Please don't tell me you know how I feel,
Unless you have lost your child too,
Please don't tell me my broken heart will heal,
Because that is just not true,
Please don't tell me my son is in a better place,
Though it is true, I want him here with me,
Don't tell me someday I'll hear his voice, see his face,
Beyond today I cannot see,
Don't tell me it is time to move on,
Because I cannot,
Don't tell me to face the fact he is gone,
Because denial is something I can't stop,
Don't tell me to be thankful for the time I had,
Because I wanted more,
Don't tell me when I am my old self you will be glad,
I'll never be as I was before,
What you can tell me is you will be here for me,
That you will listen when I talk of my child,
You can share with me my precious memories,
You can even cry with me for a while,
And please don't hesitate to say his name,
Because it is something I long to hear everyday,
Friend please realize that I can never be the same,
But if you stand by me, you may like the new person I become someday.*
