“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....." May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he "cannot lie." (Titus 1:2)###imported-begin###Dorothy Carroll###imported-end##

“ Dear Anderson family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. David. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The bible tells us at 1 Corinthians 15:26 that our enemy death will soon be destroyed by God. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort during your time of bereavement.###imported-begin###Jackie Brezzell###imported-end##

“ Dear Family: I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to you during this very difficult time. In future days, as you sit quietly and recall fond memories of your dear one, David, may your hearts find comfort and reassurance in knowing that Jehovah God has promised to resurrect persons 'sleeping in death' (John 5:28, 29; 11:11-14), to eliminate anything that causes us pain, mourning, tears or sorrow (Revelation 21:4) and to ultimately destroy death forever (1 Cor. 15:26) Keep all that he has said close to your hearts trusting that it will come to pass, for we know that God cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end###
