“ Dear Walker Family,

I am so sorry for your lost! Death takes our love ones and hurts us so deeply. That is why the Bible calls it our enemy at 1 Corthinthians 15:26 which says "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing". The beauty of this scripture is that dying will be a thing of the past. That seems impossible! But reading the account of Lazarus will comfort you more as you see how easy it was for Jesus to raise him from dead. That account can be found at John 11:1-44. I hope that these scriptures soothed you in some way!
