“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Bowen family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Darcell & Family,
Neal was a close friend of mines. Growing up on Minock, we used to have a lot of fun together. Even after you all moved off of Minock, it was still the same. You all are family to me, and the lost of my homeboy has really hurt me. I can smile knowing that Neal is now with others that have gone on before him, and he is now in the process of becoming one of God's angels. May God be with us all during this troublesome time.##imported-begin##Albert "Jay" Washington Jr.##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "Yes". For the thousands of years that mankind has known about and experienced death, it has never become easier for him to bear it. Death is truly mankind's worst enemy because it separates us from those we love. (1 Corinthians 15:26) And now our Loving God has purposed that soon death will be done away with (Isaiah 25:8) It will be no more! (Revelation 21:4) Hard to imagine though it might be, nonetheless, God has promised and we know He cannot lie (Titus 1:2). May your hearts take comfort and hope in God's word as we all await the time when soon "all those in the memorial tombs (graves), including your loved one, David, will hear his voice and come out", to live out their lives the way God originally intended..."even life forevermore" (John 5:28,29; Psalm 133:3) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolence for the loss of your loved one. Regardless of age old or young, it is always devastating when we lose a loved one. At such time we need to go to God's word for comfort: 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 "The Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comfort us in all our tribulation .##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
