“ Brother David William Moore was one of us. He carried the day when we organized Ford Motor Company in April of 1941 and brought Ford into the Collectve Bargain world with the UAW-CIO. He never lost his commitment to workers and young people. I know. I worked with him and Congressman George W. Crocklett, Jr. in that regard.

“ This is man who loved the people. It is a great loss for me that the bright and shining star who fought valiantly for labor rights and the rights of African American will not be with us. Our hearts hang heavy for the family of Mr. Dave Moore, who was a very dear friend of my father, the late Honorable Coleman A. Young, Mayor o Detroit. God's blessings to all of you.
