“As we turn off the lights
And close our eyes,
I'll tell you a secret
I've held all my life,
It's you that I live for
And for you, I'd die,
So I'll lay here with you
Til the final goodbye...

-Final Goodbye, Rihanna

Never could I have imagine 3 weeks ago, that 3 weeks later I would be without you. That I wouldn't ever be able to be held by you, kiss you, see you smile, hear your laugh, or be made love to by you. Waking up just ain't the same because you're not txting me "Good Morning Baby" and going to sleep ain't the same cause you're not txting me "You sleep?"..."Guess so. Goodnight baby. I love you so much." Some nights I find myself fighting sleep just knowing that txt will come through, then harsh reality hits when I realize it won't...

You were such the "plan-man". You didn't want nothing going down without being planned out. We had MANY plans: Plan for When I Get To TSU, Plans for the Summer, Plans for Moving After College, Plans for Children, Plans for Our Island Wedding, Plans for Tattoos in Honor of Each Other, etc. To sit and think about those plans being void, and nothing but a mere figment of imagination now hurts. I know I can't let this stifle me from marrying and still having children but it won't be the same cause it won't be with you. When I do have children I know you'll look out for them when I can't though and they'll surely have a boat load of godparents and aunties & uncles {Mama, Granny, Russ, Anthony, Will, Eric, etc} because I want them to be apart of my child's life as they would have been if you were still with us. Your family and friends are forever my family and friends as well.

I remember those times we would sit in the car or stand in front of my house for hours just cause we didn't wanna leave each other. The millions of kisses you would give me and the strong, warm hugs accompanied with I love yous' you refused to release me from. We just felt like each other's security blankets in those hugs and we felt that once we left the embrace, we were leaving each other in the unsecure hands of the world.

You never hung up the phone without "I love you." and you never let me forget who and what I was to you. "You are Mrs.White, no matter what anybody got to say. I told you that that stood ever since I proposed to you and I mean that." We prayed for each others well being daily and thanked God for allowing us one another.

You must continue on in life and live for him, they said. I just don't know how to do it without you. There's a huge piece of me that went with you and idk if and how I'll ever get it back.

You are an important memory to me, someone to never be forgotten for the impact you had on my life. I sleep with our Minnie in your RIP Mista Chopps USA shirt at night and have tried for the longest to make myself dream about you just to feel you near. I hear our favorite songs and sing along just cause I feel like I'm singing to you, which you use to love. I watch the rain you send for me everyday since you passed, you know I loved rain more than a sunny day. I sometimes feel like you're calling me or talking to me still reminding me that I'm beautiful, that you love me, and that you miss me too. Lead me in this life until it's time for me to come with you, lead me to the right man to fulfill your role when that time comes, watch over me and my family. I am truly blessed to know there are 3 pairs of footprints walk in the sand; me, God guiding me and you holding my hand.

Love You Dearly & Eternally!

“ In this moment, in this season, again God is showing us that everything we value and consume on this earth is marelly temporary and that we are living this life so that we may have in enternal Life in the kindgom. It saddens my heart to think that when i scroll down my phone and click on DeAngelo's name that he's not goin to answer or that someone so young, so vibrant, loving, and hungry for life would transcend from us so soon, but it's not surprising because he was hungry and if i have learned anything from this life i've learned that you want get full down here. “ Tina, the thought is unimaginable our minds and hearts could never phantom nor form the words to describe the lose of De'Angelo. Our love and our prayers are with you. Remember to call on the Lord, if you ask he will send you a comforter in the Holy Spirit. The Lord only picks beautiful flowers from his garden. He leaves the weeds and thorns to be cultivated. Know in your heart that De was one of God's beautiful flowers. (Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my fathers house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go to prepare a place for you I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way the truth and the life: no man cometh unto the father but by me.) “ To the White family,
My prayers are with you all during this time. I know that God has wrapped his arms around you all for comfort so please lean on him. DeAngelo was such a warm and caring young man. I remember when I first met him, he said don't worry, I will take care of your "baby". He made my daughter's band life so special. With them being only children, they shared a second bond than that of just band. He made sure she was always ok and for that I thank him and especially you for allowing me and my daughter (Brieonna Walker) the joy of sharing him with us. “ Deangelo is like a Big brother to me. He did anything and everything for me && i could never thanks him enough for all the courage and strenght he game me. He was always there for me and I was there for him but i just really wish i had the time to repay him for all he has done. and i no even though he is not with us anymore he will continue to look after me and give me the strength and courage i need to get thru things. I will miss him everyday of my life but i will always have the thousands of memories that we have. I will always be his little cuz that he showed around to everyone because he was proud of me, && that will never change.

I think about how bad i am hurting and how much time i spend crying and i no that it is nothing compared to his family. My heart goes out to his mother, granny,russ, and the rest of his family. In this time all was can do is stay strong and you all are doing a great job. I just keep everyone in my hearts at this time of need.##imported-begin##Brittany Hawthorne##imported-end##

“ i remember the first day i met you. it was my first band practice and you was one of the first to come up and introduce yourself to me. you told me "welcome to the family", and from then on we were the best of friends. everytime i would come to the band room in the mourning i would always expect to see you and get my mourning hug. during band practice you always made me laugh even when i was having a hard time. when my foot was in a cast during homecoming week you sat next to me and cheered me up since i couldn't perform. i remember the band trips we went on, you always kept our bus enteraining. there was never a dull moment when you was there. when i came back from school to see everyone, you was the first to run and give me the biggest hug. i remember at Sabree's open house we were playing games and just having a good time. then when we went to bunni's and brittney's open house, i remember you just taking a whole bunch of pictures and just acting so silly.

i will never forget all the time that we shared. you was the main person other than Sabree and Bunni that made me feel apart of the family when i join the band. i mad that i wasn't able to see you when you came home from school. i had so many questions to ask. i know you want us to be happy and know that everything is ok, but when i see pictures of you all i can do is cry. i will see you one. I love you, I miss you, and most of all I thank you for being the best friend i could have.##imported-begin##Brieonna "Bubbles" Walker##imported-end## “ Tina; This is one the hardest things I have had to do lately. My heart and mind will not agree. I am fighting with my mind because my heart is stubborn. My mind tells me everything will be okay. My heart says maybe different but not okay. Then my eyes add their two cents and tears began to flow. My heart refuses to let go. My mind says okay have it your way go on weep today because the lord said joy will come in the morning. My heart knows the lord our God is wonderful. So it lets my mind thinks it knows everything, even how to mend a broken heart. I know you will find comfort because I prayed for our father to send you all the strenght you'll need for years to come. I will not say I know how you feel. I only know how I felt. I did however find out that God made good on his promise that he wouldn't put more on me than I could bear. He is still working with me for what now twelve and half years? Boba was my baby. He made me very proud of him. I loved him and guess what Tina? He loved me. I have a ring and a letter to prove it. Oh! yeah I forgot to tell you Boba gave me a million trillon kisses. Just know you are not alone. I love you so very much. Dorothy you know I love you and will be here for you for as long as I live. I will continue to pray for you. I know God will comfort your troubled heart and mind. He is doing it for me.

And you know you can't stand to see me with anything you can't have. I love you, your sister Sand##imported-begin##Sandra Conerly (Sannie Sand)##imported-end##

He had a sweet gentle side that can't be matched, that is what made him so very special. My prayers are with you and Dorothy. “ Mr. DeAngelo White...

You are the sweetest most generous and caring person that I have ever met in my life. You always had the bright beautiful smile on your face and you kept the jokes coming. I still remember us hustling on spring fest making the money selling strawberry dacquris and hot wings. That night was the band banquet and we got to do the mock elections.....boy did we do the fool that night!!! You kept your section going and you loved to play the drums! Hearing of your passing took everything out of me because I knew that I didnt tell you how much that I loved you like a brother. You were and still are a role model to so many people, including me. Thank you for being the great person that you were. God has such a greater master plan in store for you that can't be understood right now. DeAngelo sweetheart, I LOVE YOU and I always will. “ D this doesn't even seem real. Every morning I roll over to see if you have called or texted me for the 50th time, okay I'm exaggerating but hey you know how you were. I miss those text messages and you showing up at my house to clear out the refrigerator and have stand-off with me and the t.v. remote... The first time I saw you when we returned from a whole year of school you wouldn't let me live it down that I had gained weight and you had lost a lot. You seemed so determined to be more than just a percussionist when you returned and even your vocabulary was different, yes D you were finally growing up lol. I remember drumline practices and all those crazy workout regimens you gave us and that one cadence.... dang I can't remember what it was called but we all played dead. We sure had a lot of fun when you and Bunnie came up to MSU to spend the night and you threw all my MSU stuff on the floor and said TSU is in the house... we had fun at Buffalo Wild Wings and tried to compete to eat the most wings.... ugh bad idea! The next morning we even poked at you while you were sleeping! I remember the long band trip when you tried to sit on everyone's lap and sing.... I always reminded you not to quit your day job. You made my open house something special, you ain't all my macaroni and cheese and didn't leave until almost 3am! For you to be the only child you wouldn't know it because the original fam, you loved us all and made sure to remind me especially that you weren't going anywhere. Remember the last time the majority of the fam was together over Nyony's and you kept messing with everyone and pulled off before Jack Jack could get in the car. I laughed until I had a headache. Man I really wish we could have celebrated another birthday with you... this time I was going to actually come to Cedar Point lol!!!!!! By the way TSU should have rewarded you because you had me convince that TSU should have been my home. I could go on for days of the good and bad memories we shared... but I'm sure you'd say save it until I see you again. The last time I saw you, you gave me the warmest hug and dang I never thought it would be the last kiss on the forehead and last goodbye. I stood by as often because I knew you would come back, but God had more important things in store for you... Give me some strength to show everyone that it is going to be all right. I cry because your not here, you fought well. Don't worry, I'll make it my business to see that your mom is alright every chance I get. I love you De'Angelo!##imported-begin##Sabree' Caver##imported-end##

*“ Hey, i remember when you were over my house i came out b/c you called me and my sis was in the shower my hair was all over my head and u said, "Girl you better go do somthin wit that hair." I just laughed. We just sat outside talking about your bike...or the time you stayed over all night for sabree's open house, that was so fun!!!... You kept asking for some more macaroni and cheese and even asked me where the other pan was b/z my mom told you there was another one. we watched tv sat there and talked, had a good time. Lol it was fun clowning around on the band trips, you're a good friend. Ima miss you, this upcomming marching band season will be dedicated to you! Love ya Bud!!!...❤️❤️❤️❤️
P.S. when you look down on me ima have my hair done##imported-begin##Shene'l Caver##imported-end##*
