“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the McGee family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ To the Holston & McGhee family my prayers are with you in your time of need. Deborah, Muffy, Baby Girl, & Josh you have my deepest sympathy and my condolences I understand how it feels to lose a close loved one. People say they know how you feel, but words cannot express how a person truly feels because everyone grieves different. My advice is when you find yourselves down just reach out to God and pray for the strength. I send you all my love and prayers. “ My thoughts and prayers are extended to you at this time of loss. It's hard to keep our heads up when our hearts are so heavy. Our Grand Creator comforts us during this difficult time. (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) For HE says, “Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not gaze about, for I am your God. I will fortify you. I will really help you. I will really keep fast hold of you with my right hand of righteousness.’ For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.’ Reflect on the happier memories you shared with DeAngelo. Look at photos and videos; it might be painful at first. But, those memories will help you to heal. “Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you”. Psalms 55:22 Prayer to God is not an emotional crutch. It is real and vital communication with the “God of all comfort”, who will comfort us in all our tribulation”. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; Revelations 21:3-5, Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
