“ Delt and Ann,

Sorry to hear about your dad. I can't imagine the world without Mr. Wash. He will truly be missed. The last time I saw him was about 3 weeks ago, he was sitting on that little wall between his house and my parents' house. I told him to "Move it or lose it" and we both smiled and he said "Come on up, Tee". Who knew that would be the last time I would talk to Mr. Wash. Mr. Wash was my boy. I've known you guys for over 40 years. The Washington family was a big part of my life growing up. The only reason I'm not there is I'm nursing a bad knee, otherwise I would have been there to say goodbye to Mr. Wash. I will keep your family in my thoughts and prayers.

Love

“ Cousin Ann, My sister, I can't say I know how you feel cause I don't. I am blessed to still have both my parents. You were truly a daddy's girl like me and you had a bond that was so strong. You are going to miss him. Know that he has fulfilled this earthly life and has what we all are living for eternally with the Master the Divine. He has his mansion and is up there with "Mother" Ronald and Aunt Martha and the rest of the saints. YOU ARE BLESSED TO Have him this long, You know Father knows best. You are never alone Ann. God got your back. I am here for you we got to stick together like the good old days cousin. Love you much Phyl

“ I was deeply saddened upon hearing that Deacon Delter Washington Sr. had passed away. His demeanor and smile made you feel special because you knew that he was real and sincere. I will truly miss this good Christian man who loved praising the Lord! To Ann and family; my prayers are with you and may God wipe away the tears and replace them with the loving and fond memories that you have of Deacon Washington. My love to each and everyone of you!

“ Dear Andrea and Family,

Having a relationship with the Lord gives you the strength to endure. I know that you know that this earth is not our home. We were Blessed to have him in our lives and if we continue to live right, will see him again in his brand new home. Your in my Prayers

“Dad, you left us suddenly, but we understand that you had to go. God saw that you were missing so many loved ones and friends. He saw that the load was getting a little too much for you to handle so, with all of His wisdom, He called you home.

I will miss you because we were close. I was truly a daddy's girl and loved being around you. I am at peace with your leaving, but it hit me hard when I heard the news.

Dad, I know that for the past 10 years you missed my mother. After 50+ years of marriage, it ain;t easy being without your other half.

Now, my brother and I are left alone. Yes, we have other family and friends, but it is not the same as having you, Mother and Ronald here with us. We will live a life that is pleasing to God in order that we may see all of you again.

I love you Dad, forever and a day.##imported-begin##Andrea Banks##imported-end##
