“ Phyllis my deepest sympathy goes out to your family doing your time of grief. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. When it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. May you find comfort in Jesus words at John 5:28,29 where he gives us the hope of a resurrection. Again my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Azalea Perkins ##imported-end##

“ Phyllis, my childhood friend to the end. My heart sunk when I heard who it was. He came up to me and introduced himself to me. I said I know whose son you are but didn't know his name. So polite. May God ease your pain.
Love you##imported-begin##Merryle Westbrook##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "YES". Death at any age is an enemy of mankind, but when one is so young, it's devastating! (1 Cor. 15:26). However, our Loving Creator has promised that he will destroy death forever (Isaiah 25:8) and the time is coming, very soon, when "all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and shall come forth..." (John 5:28, 29) Until that day arrives, may the God of all comfort give you strength beyond what is normal to cope with the death of your dear loved one, DeMaszio, as we all eagerly await the time when God will 'wipe away the tears from their eyes' because 'there shall be no more death...'. (Revelation 21:4; Psalm 83:18) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
