“ Wow it still feels so unreal...Like Brandon said me and Dennis didnt talk everyday but its just we all thought he would always be there and now he isnt it hurts so so bad. The day we lied him to rest I cant count how many people came up to me and said we (Dennis and I) look like brother and it hurt because I'm here and he isn't but I now realize I along with the rest of the family has to carry his spirit not just within us but on our faces. With our laughter, our smiles, our hugs, and our love for one another. Dino was a light in that he always lite up any moment and I'm trying so hard to let his light shine to light up our dark hour. I love you Auntie with all my heart and I promise it willnt be another 2 years.##imported-begin##Rian##imported-end##

“ Dear Cynthia - There are prayers and concern for you and your family for the loss of your precious son. CHM kept me too busy again yesterday to get to the funeral home and today I have a prior committment. But I want you to know you are in my thoughts and prayers daily. I pray you will feel God's companionship in the people that are loving you and in the times you are alone walking griefs journey.##imported-begin##Cathie Khoury##imported-end##

“ Dennis..what can I say.. Im going to miss you so much. I cant believe that your gone so soon, you were one of the sweetest men that I ever knew. It hurts me so much to know that you are gone. We shared so many stories together and memories...and I sware to cherish them all for the rest of my life. You will always have a big place in my heart for your beautiful smile and your kind words...love you much always!##imported-begin##Amber Blakely##imported-end##

“ Dennis, I remember you growing up at church with my boys. You were in my Sunday school class. You were a soft spoken young man who always had a smile. You always tried to help out. Although you have left us, you will never be forgotten. We will put our arms around your family and keep you deep in our thoughts. God Bless!

“ I had the pleasure of being Dennis' youth counselor at St. Timothy UMC. I will always remember his loving spirit, stylish flair and fun loving ways. Dennis tickled me so much when the youth group went on our end of the year trip (Cedar Point) in 2005. He would not top doing the "bird call" (a strange pidgen-like sound). I instructed him to stop making the noise because I didn't want the other youth to follow suit but deep down inside it was hilarious to me. Dennis will truly be missed! I will keep you and your family in my prayers. Truly,

“ Dear Sister, I now believe that God sends angles to this earth to show us the way to his kindom. Dennis was one of those angles. I don't know how we will live without him. Dennis and Brandon were connected in body and spirit as we carried them at the same time. God called Dennis to heaven but I know that every day that my son lives, he will live with Dennis's spirit in his soul. Joseph will be your saving grace, thats why God gave him to you. I know that he will be all that you wanted for Dennis and more that you want for him. God bless you and the family and show us the way to healing that only he can do. My heart is heavy now and I must give all my strength to you, to help you through this. James and I will miss our Dino for the rest of our lives. Love always, you sister Carlotta, Archie,Brandon and Anjelica.###imported-begin###Auntie Lottie and Uncle James###imported-end###

“ I did not knw you 4 long but I thank God for the time I did. There is a reason why God decided to take you back. I know now that you are no longer and pain but it hurts me to see one of my peers leave the earth. You will forever be missed eternally and God bless you for touching the lives that you have. I will be praying for your family and friends. Fly high enough for all of us and spread your wings for all to see. God bless you Dennis!

“ I am a strong believer in when people show you who they are you should believe them. With Dennis though there were so many parts of him that you never really knew. He was his own person and never let anyone change him and when you ask him why he gave you that smile and a simple snicker and that seemed to be all you need to know. Dennis a man of little words but of great interest to many, often misunderstood but that was him. I think that though I have only known him for a short time I got a glimpse of someone who was true to himself regardless of anything. If there is any question of how I felt about Dennis here it is...I loved him as if he was my own family and it is extremely hard to imagine this world without him in it. Though his years were short, his mark will be long lasting. To his family especially his mother, grandmother and aunts you guys remain continuously in my thoughts and prayers...love ya much!

“ Hi Auntie, even if no one else posts on here, I will. I miss him so much already. Its funny because I struggled figuring out what to write on here. What can I say that hasn't already been said. I know it took me by surprise when you told me that when you see me, you see him. I honestly don't know how my life will be like without him in it. I know we didn't talk everyday but I always felt like no matter what, he would always be there. I didn't want him to feel like I abandoned him or didn't care about him, when I went away to school. But the reality is I sometimes did. I just want you to know I will keep living in his memory always, thank you for giving me my brother. I love you auntie.##imported-begin##Brandon ##imported-end##
