“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.##imported-begin##Cynthia Mills##imported-end##

“ To the entire Kent family my thoughts and prayers are with all of you "Sometimes its hard to understand and harder still to say "Thy Will Be Done" when sorrow comes and sadness fills your day" "But" Faith was meant for times like these and if you take "God's Hand" with loving wisdom He will help your heart to understand" "Because those we love are with the Lord and the Lord has promised to be with us if They are with Him and He is indeed with us then surely Ricky cannot be far away" So sleep on Ricky and take your rest we all loved you but "God Loved You Best" with Heartfelt Sympathy and Prayers Sincerely, Ruth D.
