“ To the Family: Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one, Mr. Donald Maxwell. Although I didn't know him personally, our Creator certainly knows him well and will not forsake him in the grave (Acts 24:15) God has promised a resurrection for all those sleeping in death (John 5:28,29) and He has also promised that soon death will be a thing of the past (Revelation 21:3,4) and tears, pain and sorrow will be gone. May these Scriptural truths ease your mind and hearts and bring you peace and comfort knowing that Jehovah God will do all that he has promised (Titus 1:2). My Deepest Sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear that Don died - such a short time after his retirement. What a shame. The last three years of his worklife I saw him once a month at a meeting and he always made me laugh. He seemed like a very nice, easygoing guy.##imported-begin##Chris Collins##imported-end##

“ Don and I were great friends. My kids were never afraid to as him for anything, they told me today when they heard the news of his passing. I have missed Don ever since my kids moved on from Kennedy and Taft. He always had a smile and something to talk about. He had my bagel tables ready for every bagel day for the "Bagel Ladies". I will think of him often and remember him fondly. He will be missed. God bless and keep you Don Maxwell.##imported-begin##Janet McCutcheon##imported-end##

“ One of my favorite memories of Don is seeing him sitting on the stairs at Taft with one of his “lunch buddies” giving him a quiet pep talk after he had been sent to the office, telling him that he knew he could do better and that he would be checking in on him. He was such a genuine, kind and caring man. He touched many lives over the years, including my own. He truly will be missed.##imported-begin##Bridget Maiorana##imported-end##

“ Don was the glue that held Taft and Kennedy Elementary Schools together. He always had a kind word for the children and the parents. He will be truly missed. My prayers are with his family to get through this rough time, just remember he was loved and admired by many many people that he touched throughout his life.##imported-begin##Mary Jo O'Rear##imported-end##

“ I knew Don for years when my kids went to Taft and Kennedy, and since moving out of MI I had not seen him. For some reason I just thought of him the other day and I'm sorry to hear of his passing.

My condolences to his family and friends. Don was so kind and funny, and a positive presence during my children's school years. He was part of our old Taft community and he'd stop by sometimes for a cup of tea and to say hi when we were socializing in the parent room at Kennedy. I'll always remember him fondly.##imported-begin##Cindy Goustin##imported-end##

“ May God sincerely bless all of those who loved Don. Find comfort in knowing that God's plan is perfect and He does not make mistakes (no matter how accidental they may seem). There is definitely a force that is mightier than we are and we have to trust Him. I know that you are emotionally stretched to the limit, but I pray for your healing and comforting.##imported-begin##Kme##imported-end##

“ Mr. Maxwell was our custodian at John F. Kennedy School. He retired last June after many, many years of faithful service. We joked at his retirement lunch about how many tons of snow he'd shoveled, and about how many times he'd helped kindergarteners open their milk cartons. It makes me very sad to know he had so little time to enjoy his retirement. I hope the family will take some comfort in knowing that his Kennedy family misses him and sends their sincere condolences. He will be rememebered by many teachers and the hundreds of children he helped during his many years in the school district.##imported-begin##Nancy DeRousha##imported-end##
