“ Douglas I will always remember as the baby and will always know that when my time comes he is standing at the gate waiting to open it to let me in. Why? Because we too were close and were just about to write a book together. But I know Douglas knows I will finish that book he wanted to write for him.###imported-begin##Sylvia McClain###imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Mr. McClain. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. John 5:28,29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when 'death and pain will be no more'. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time you receive the comfort you need.###imported-begin##Mrs. Malone###imported-end##

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why Doug left this earth so soon, or why he left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that he died, but that he lived. And that his life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.
May your memories give you strength. God keep you and We Love You!

“ To My Family:

My prayers are with you at all times but particularly at this time of bereavement. Doug will always be remembered and the memories will serve to help us move from grief to joy! I ask that God will give all strength during this time. God is so good and HE is a just God and He will put no more on us than we can bear. We must continue to give Him all the glory and praise even at a time such as this. He is a prayer answering God and I give Him thanks that He answered my prayer that HIS will be done in Doug's life!

To God be the glory because Doug let me know that he loved his family and he loved the Lord! I'm truly sorry that I can't be with you at this time but I'm praying and thanking God for each of you.

Love always,

Tricia
