“ I'm so saddened to hear of Duane's passing. We spent many early childhood days together playing at the marina, or in the neighborhood and exploring the world as boys growing into men. To the Pope family, please know that you are in my prayers and Duane's memory lives on in all of us.##imported-begin##Eric Weaver##imported-end##

“ *Duane you will be missed brother, I have not seen you in a while but those childhood memories at your house or at the Weavers house or on your dads boat.
Playing football in the streets or racing each other over on Parkside.*

You will be missed and not forgotten.

Time goes on for us all but the memories keep us conected.##imported-begin##Mr. Leigh Smith##imported-end##

“ Dear Edith, Donna & Sandy-There are no words that can express how heavy our hearts are at the loss of Duane. His constant teasing, his infectious smile, his deep down laughs, his helpful spirit, and even his occasional temper, are but a few of the things we loved and will miss about him. Although an adult, he will always be remembered as the little brother that was a co-ring bearer, along with Darin, his little brother, when we got married. We all have volumes of fond memories and Duane stories to carry us through. God Bless you all.###imported-
