“ *My heart-felt condolences to the Bennett family in this sad time. I got to know this nice man over the past couple of years as I assisted him with a real estate search. We never ended-up landing a home, but I spent many, many hours with him in the car and going through numerous interesting properties and he was always ready with a big smile, firm handshake and lots of great stories. Having recently lost my father, I know it'll sometimes be a tough road to go on without him, but when the sad thoughts and loneliness creep in, chase 'em out with the memories of laughter and good times!##imported-begin##Jay M. “ Im writing because Im sorry about your loss, I know at this time you are truly going through a difficult time. But God promises one,day you truly will be able to see Dwight Bennett again in a beautiful paradise home. If you have your Bible please read John 5:28,29. May the God of tender mercy continue to be with you.##imported-begin##kelynn salley ##imported-end##

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Bennett family much comfort during this time, God’s word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with our loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ To The Family of Dwight Bennett,

My heart is deeply saddened by your loss and my thoughts and prayers are with you.

~The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love.

*May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love~##imported-

“ *Dear Bennett family, please accept my condolence over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Dwight Alphonso. I am writing to share with you the bibles wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14)" If an able body man dies, can he live again... This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Mr. Dwight Alphonso. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.###imported-begin##Jackie
