“ To the family:
May God bless you all through this very difficult time. Dwyone is a man that will be deeply missed. I always did admire his willingness of not ever being afraid to express himself. I first met Dwyone in Ann Arbor through my roommates and then I got a chance to know him on a more personal level when he became a member of our fraternity Alpha Phi Alpha. His dedication and commitment to the community is something that will never be forgotten. I am so happy that I had the pleasure of meeting him and being apart of his life.

Sincerely,

“ “What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.”

“ Vengence is mine saith the lord.. He will repay. There is no excuse or reason to take life and play the role of God! He is a just God and he will do right. Whatsoever a man soeth he shall reap. My heart goes out to the family.. But most of all to the sick person who committed this UNGODLY act! Lord forgive them for they know not what they do.....the blood of the innocent will cry out and God will judge accordingly... Be not dismayed... Weeping may endure for a night but joy commeth in the morning!##imported-begin##Jonathan Stevenson##imported-end##

“ To the Joiner family my deepest sympathy and condolences go to you. It is never a easy thing to lose a loved one especially a person who touched many hearts like Mr. Joiner did while here on earth. As sad as this may be we have to realize that we all have to leave here oone day. The most important thing is what we accomplish for the Lord while we are here. Mr. Joiner did his work through Christ by touching the hearts of younger generations and I personally thank him for that on behalf of every student from Cody high school that loved him. Mr. Joiner iJust want you to know that even though its been a while since iSeen you iReally appreciate you as a teacher, friend and person. I thank you for supporting me at Jamal's funeral and thank you for asking about my daughter when you would see her grandmother. Truely a good man that will be missed dearly but forever in our hearts.##imported-begin##Alexus Summers-Cody Graduate Class of 2007##imported-end##

“ Sorry to hear of the passing of Dwyone. Its sad to see someone who gave his life to help young people and was loved by so many have to pass so soon and tragically. Unexpected acts of violence is something that marks the time we are living in (2 Timothy 3:1-5). But we can take comfort in knowing this will not always be and their is a God who cares. By drawing close to him we can be comforted. (James 4:8)##imported-begin##Corey##imported-end##

January 24, 2012 at 08:02 AM

“ Dear Family: The Bible teaches us that in this life, this system of things we live in now, we will sometimes experience unexpected and devastating things. It says, in part, at Ecclesiastes 9:11.. 'time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all". Still death, however it comes, at any time or any age is an enemy of mankind because it robs us of those we love so dearly.(1 Corinthians 15:26) I realize that words may offer little comfort at this time, but hopefully in the days and weeks ahead you will consider God's promises to mankind regarding this 'enemy'. Our Loving Creator (Psalm 83:18) promises us that 'death' will be destroyed...forever! (Isaiah 25:8). And He will lovingly resurrect our loved ones who have died! (John 5:28,29; 11:25,26) Anything causing us pain, outcry, tears, mourning and sorrow will be gone forever (Revelation 21:4)and those wicked ones who would harm us will be annihilated. (Proverbs 2:22; Psalm 37:38) I realize that your hearts are heavy and there are tears today, but I hope that future days will help you to know that God will soon heal your broken hearts and bind up your painful spots (Psalm 147:3).Indeed, a beautiful tomorrow awaits us. (1 Corinthians 2:9; Titus 1:2) My deepest heartfelt sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
