“ To: Mr. Alvine Harris, Sonya Harris and Sis Norma Harris.

My sincere condolenc at this your time of loss and grief. Be assured of my prayers for His comfort, His joy and His peace.

Sis Norma I can only imagine home more closely painful this is for you. But we continue to keep faith and confidence in Him who gave and at His appointed time has chosen to take.

Again, my condolence and prayers are with you all.

Prayerfully

“ *My Dear Sister in Christ, Sonya
You and your family are in my prayers and have my deepest sympathy and condolences.
It is times like this that knowing our Risen Lord and Savior means so much and carries us through these times of sorrow.
May He bless you and your family and keep you in His ever loving peace and care.
Your Brother in the Lord,

“ *Mr. Harris, I will miss seeing your smile as I drive by your corner. I can remember you greeting me when I first moved into my house, you walked over to my house smoking that cigarette cool and jazzy saying " hello i'm Mr. Harris how about you" from that day forward I respected you and always looked forward to seeing you on your corner and playing with the Grandchildren especially the lil girl with the long tails. To the Harris family I will have you in my prayers.
Love always, Keisha Duvall##imported-begin##Keisha Duvall##imported-end##*
