“ Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one, Mr. Eddie. Nothing can be more devastating to us than the death of someone we love and it is a challenge, indeed, to move on without them in our lives. But our Loving Creator has given us reason for hope...the sure hope of seeing our loved ones again. At John 5:28,29 he teaches us that 'the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out'. At Revelation 21:4 our God promises that 'he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and DEATH will be no more'. Isaiah states that our Loving God will 'swallow up' DEATH forever! (Isaiah 25:8) I realize that at this moment, words can offer little comfort. But, I hope in the days ahead that you will read these Scriptures and think about the wonderful hope that God offers...to see our loved ones again. May this help to ease your pain and comfort your heart knowing that Our Loving God will do all that He has promised for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin##joyce jones###imported-end##

“ Angie, Erica, Randy and John;

We want you to know that we were not able to attend the services for your Dad. You all were certainly in our thoughts and prayers from the moment we found out until now. From the time of the service our prayers were for your strength during this heavy time in your lives. God will see you through and comfort you daily, giving you the strength you need to continue your lives and bonding more closer to one another. we Love all of you very dearly and treasure our relationship with you all. You are special to us and want you all to know that we are here for you. Our contact is the same. Let contact soom. Much Love send you way
