“ MY DAD! That's my signature title for him. Although it sometimes angered some of my siblings when I would refer to him and MY MOM! in this manner, it was not my intent to do so ,but rather an expression of how each one them made me feel when I was in their presence. I truly believe that the heart is capable of loving and belonging to an abundance of recipients at the exact same time , as IS the LOVE of GOD. OUR Parents discovered and performed this skill of the heart during their lifetimes,as it is evident in the many lifes that they touched and influenced. It is my prayer that the offspring may carry on this ability to love one another as we have truly been LOVED. JOBS well done MY DEAR MOM and MY DAD!###imported-begin##Constance Y.Harrell-Harris##imported-end##

“ My prayers are with my brothers and sisters and all extended family. Dad will be missed. His loving, caring, sharing spirit should be an inspiration to all who knew and loved him. Dad would want us all to be good stewards of the gifts and talents God blessed us with. I have a blessed assurance the my Dad is at peace and he wishes the same for his children. Dad loved his family in a mighty way, so let those that remain carry on the tradition of love established by our parents--that of peace, joy and love be our legacy for future generations.

Respectfully submitted, his oldest daughter, Pam##imported-begin##Pamela Fain-Zaka##imported-end##

“ To the family: Love is the one thing that never dies, but grows without end. That love is of God for God is love and love is all that counts. Let the loving presence of God surround and comfort you at this time of loss. Remember also, that without a doubt, you shall be together again. Until then, embrace each other and the sweet memories of your times together. Bless you all. With loving sincerity, Linda Langford###imported-begin##Linda Langford###imported-end##

“ Grandad, I will miss you very much and I wish we had had more time together. My kids would have loved to see you again, but I know that you are smiling down on them as I speak. I can't express in words how much I love you and how much you mean to me, but I do know that God has called you home and that is the best place that you could be. Love you,

Erica, Randall, and Sierra.##imported-begin##Erica M. Harrell##imported-end##
