“ The Worthen-Thomas family expresses its deepest and sincerest sympathy to you at this challenging time in your lives. We share in your sorrows as you shared in our moments of celebration of family during our recent reunion. However, being that we live by faith, we had no earthly idea of the event which would unfold . It is said that there is something good to come out of all things regarded as bad; the good in this case being that our family is extended with the inclusion of the family of Edward Presbery and the knowledge that God reigns on high and will forever be Lord. We are pleased to have had Edward come into our lives and are certain we will meet again. Be blessed on this day and days to come as our Father in heaven holds each of us in the palm of His hand.##imported-begin##Linda R. Powers##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Lawanda and her children. I use to work with Lawanda at Comerica Bank and I was deeply saddened when I heard the news. Lawanda, you and your family will be in my prayers and know that GOD is with you in this time of sorrow.

God Bless You

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Lawanda and her children. I worked with Lawanda at Comerica and am deeply saddened to hear news. I cannot imagine the road ahead that you now face, but know that you will all be in my prayers. I hope that each day brings you peace in knowing your beloved is in heaven and that you too will be with him again someday. Never let go of your memories and never stop living. God be with you in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Emily Huntley##imported-end##
