“ Dear King family, please accept my condolence over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Ernest John. I am writing to you about the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The scriptures remove all confusion about what happens to us at the time of death. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." this is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Mr. Ernest John. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezell##imported-end##

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Family: The Bible teaches us that life is fast and fleeting. We are here but a little while and then quickly we fade away. (Psalm 103:15,16) Such is the state of mankind at present. However our Loving God Jehovah has also promised a time (soon) when we will no longer die because death will be swallowed up...destroyed forever!! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal us of all our sicknesses, (Isaiah 33:24) restore our loved ones to us who have died by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29) and extend our lives throughout eternity (Psalm 133:3) These things God has promised us in his Word, the Bible, because he Loves us and he wants to see us happy and secure on this earth that he has given to us. (Psalm 115:16; Psalm 37:11;29) As you remember the life of your loved one, Ernest, please keep God's promises close to your heart for they will, without fail, come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
