“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of you dear loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....” May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.” (Titus 1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry to read of the loss of, Ernest. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28-29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when ‘death and pain will be no more’. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ Hello, Bridgeman family.I am very sorry for your lost. I do not know Ernest personally,I was just like to leave the family with kind& encouraging words. There is hope for the dead, the bible teaches us at John 5:28,29"those in the memorial tombs will..come out", those resurrected as humans will have the opportunity to live on a paradise earth(Luke 23:43) In the near future you all will be able to see Ernest again, you can put your confidence and trust in Jehovah God's promise because God can not lie(Titus 1:2)amd whatever come forth from His mouth proves to be(Isa.55:11) I will keep the Bridgeman family in my prayers.
