“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ In mourning I'd like to share the expression of gratitude I have for my uncle "Eff" whose character I will surely miss. His legacy of love I will always cherish. It is the Lord's will to turn,change and transform our mourning into dancing, therefore, I celebrate his going on to glory. It comforts us to know that his soul finds rest now in GOD.##imported-begin##Dorian Price##imported-end##

“ To my Uncle “Eff”

You have taught us that we are here for a fleeting moment to enrich other people’s lives, and you most certainly have done that. I will remember you fondly along with your artful recitation of the following poem.

*Love from your niece,
Gail Ann*

A Psalm of Life

*Tell me not in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream!
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.*

*Life is real! Life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou are, to dust thou returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.*

*Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each tomorrow
Find us farther than today.*

*Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.*

*In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a hero in the strife!*

Trust no Future, however pleasant!

*Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act, - act in the living Present!
Heart within, and God overhead!*

*Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sand of time;*

*Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.*

*Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.*

*Henry Wadsworth Longfellow##imported-begin##Gail A.
Lake##imported-end##*

“ Dad:

Words will never capture you as a father. Your love of words; of poetry and life made us the sons and daughters we are today. Because of you (and Mom, who preceded you in death), we know Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. Your love of life; your love of family and friends will remind us all of how important life, family and friend are. Your words: "Do what you can, for those you can, if you can, when you can...for that's all you can do"...inspire us to be better people. God prepares a place for us - and He took you to the place He prepared for you. I love you dearly, Dad.

*Your beloved daughter,
