“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Butler family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ *We wish to convey our sincere sympathy in the loss of your loved one, Eugene, Jr. Be comforted in the memories of love that you shared during the brief span of his lifetime. Be encouraged in the knowledge that death cannot end that love. God bless you one and all during this time. We love you too,

“ Dear Family: A faithful servant of God once asked: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?" (Job 14:14) All through the Bible the Scriptures give a resounding "Yes". For the thousands of years that mankind has known about and experienced death, it has never become easier for him to bear it. Death is truly mankind's worst enemy because it separates us from those we love. (1 Corinthians 15:26) And now our Loving God has purposed that soon death will be done away with (Isaiah 25:8) It will be no more! (Revelation 21:4) Hard to imagine though it might be, nonetheless, God has promised and we know He cannot lie (Titus 1:2). May your hearts take comfort and hope in God's word as we all await the time when soon "all those in the memorial tombs (graves), including your loved one, Eugene, will hear his voice and come out", to live out their lives the way God originally intended..."even life forevermore" (John 5:28,29; Psalm 133:3) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I send sympathy to the loved ones and friends at this sad time. May you find comfort knowing that our heavenly father promises to comfort those who are grieving. (Philippians 4:6,7) When his Kingdom comes, all suffering will be gone forever and we will see our loved ones again. (Revelation 21:3,4)##imported-begin##J. G##imported-end##
