“ Dear Family: I just wanted to express my condolences to you on the death of your loved one, Mr. Eugene. Although I didn't know him personally, I can relate very well to the death of a loved one, especially a father, for I too, lost my father some years ago. The emotional pain is all the same. The only One who can removed that pain for us is the One who promised to do away with death forever! (1Corinthians 15:26). With that accomplished, He has promised to restore our loved ones to us by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29). All tears, mourning, outcry, and pain will be gone, forever...just as he has promised (Revelation 21:4) May you find comfort in the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1: 3,4; Psalm 83:18)in the days ahead just as I have over the years. May His words of Truth soothe your hearts as they have mine, as we wait patiently for the fulfillment of his promises, for they will not fail to come true (Titus 1:2). My Deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ I'm sending my sincere condolences to each of you. We have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death, and the emotional pain is all the same. Our Heavenly Father feels the pain that you are going through. He holds out a promise that one day soon he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more (Revelation 21:3-5) Additionally, He promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out. “ I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from God found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##s##imported-end##
