“ I would like to extend my heartfelt sympathy to the family during this difficult time. As you continue to deal with your loss, I hope you find comfort in knowing that God will sustain you. "Jehovah God is near those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves". (Psalm 34:18). May the God of tender mercies and all comfort give you the strength you need to endure. (2 Corinthians 1:1-3). Your family is in my prayers.##imported-begin##Valerie##imported-end##

“ To the Snipes Family,
I have known you all my entire life and as I grew up next door to you, I remember how close knit you all are. This is definitely the time when being around each other will help the grieving process. Ezell Jr was wise and old beyond his years. Remember those times when you are sad and be sure to allow yourselves the time to grieve. Pray for your strength and I will keep you all in my prayers.##imported-begin##LaTessa (Tessa) Caldwell##imported-end##

“ In celebration of your home-going today, Wednesday September 21, 2011... I just want you to know that you will truly be missed and never forgotten.

You were a GREAT friend and person. I will never forget one of our last conversations and your quote that is stuck in my head "You will never be #1 if you continue to settle being #2!"

I love you for always being you no matter what!

My condolences goes out to your family, friends and anyone who has ever crossed your path and had a chance to know you.

Although I am not able to attend your home-going in person because I am in Dallas, TX traveling for business, I am there in spirit.

Rest In Paradise Junior!

“ Dear Snipes Family: A very wise man once wrote that "I returned to see under the sun that the swift do not have the race, nor the mighty ones the battle, nor do the wise also have the food, nor do the understanding ones also have the riches, nor even those having knowledge have the favor, because time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all". (Ecclesiastes 9:11) Nothing could have prepared you for the untimely death of your loved one, Ezell. However, no matter how death may intrude in our lives, it is still an enemy to us that only God can reckon with (1Corinthians 15:26). Rest assured that He is aware of your pain and he truly cares for you (1 Peter 5:7) Our Loving Creator has already arranged for you (and all of us) to see your dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. At John 5:28,29 He promises that the time will come (soon) when all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out! No more tears of sorrow, no more sickness, mourning, outcry or pain (Revelation 21:4,Isaiah 33:24) Man will then have the opportunity to live out his life span as God intended.."even life forever more" (Psalm 133:4) May God's Word bring you much comfort in the days and weeks ahead knowing that others, too share your grief. Also know that ALL God (Psalm 83:18) has promised will come true, for He cannot lie(Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
