“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21: 3, 4. “ Dear Alexander family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Ezell. I am writing to share with you the bibles hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This hope is held out to all mankind, including to Mr. Ezell. May the God of all tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I am saddened to learn of your loss. But please be assured of the promise recorded at John 5:28,29 which says in part, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." Please find your comfort through the scriptures and please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jefferson##imported-end##

“ To Lisa and your Brothers and other Family Members,

I wish that there were adequate words to express my empathy with you during this sad time. I know from experience what it is like to lose a brother/father/uncle. But there is a word of hope and consolation. The Lord Jesus told us that the Holy Spirit is our Comforter and will comfort us when we need Him. "Trust in the LOrd with all your heart and lean not to your own understanding."##imported-begin##Gracy Lee Martin, a long time friend of the family, especially K##imported-end##

“ Please accept my expressions of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one. I want to share with you encouragement and hope about the Bible's wonderful promises of the resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way at Job 14:14. He said: "if an able body man dies, can he live again?" This hope is extended to all of mankind, including your loved one. The scriptures promise that soon "death will be no more." (Revelation 21:4)###imported-begin###V Williams###imported-end###

“ Dear Family, please accept my sincere condolence. While I don't know your family, I do know the pain, grief and feelings of helplessness that the death of a loved one can bring. At such times, we seek comfort from God's word...2Corinthians 1:3,4 helps us to understand how God and Jesus feel about death. Jesus even grieved at the loss of his friend Lazarus,John 11:33,35 tells us that he "gave way to tears." Even though Jesus knew something wonderful was about to happen, he still felt the pain and sorrow that death bring. Jesus' grief encourages us...it teaches us that Jesus and his Father, Jehovah, hate death. The account of Lazarus teaches us that resurrection in a reality and not a myth. Jesus raised Lazarus in front of a crowd of eyewitnesses. This miracle softend the hearts and minds of unbelievers...they put their faith in Jesus. We too can trust in Jesus and Jehovah, John 5:28,29 tells us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." We look forward to the days when we can see our dead love ones again. If you would like to further discuss God's many promises of a paradise earth, please feel free to send me an email.###imported-begin###Cynthia Mills###imported-end###

“ To the Alexander family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort through the Word of God. "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..."-Isaiah 25:8.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##
