“ To Sister and Brother Mitchell and the Ester family and friends...No matter when our loved ones leave us it is always much too soon and our hearts are broken. May Your precious memories of your Floyd's smiles, his laughter,his caring and the love he shared with each of you help you to endure your loss...and may your complete reliance upon "the God of comfort"(2Corinthians 1:3,4) bring you comfort and strengthen your hearts,helping it to heal in the future.##imported-begin##Harvey and Sylvia Colston##imported-end##

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ *The people we love live on in our hearts. It takes a long time to get used to the loss of someone we love. But it's important to remember that when people die they leave something very special behind. They leave us memories of the things they said and did. And as long as we have these memories the people we love will live on in our hearts and minds. Rev. 21:4 help us to see that god will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more.....With Deepest Sympathy. Geneva McClendon

“ I am so sorry to read of the loss of Mr. Ester. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28-29, God promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when ‘death and pain will be no more’. (Revelation 21:4) May God be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
