“ Dear Brown family, please accept my condolence over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Frank. I am writing to share with you the bible's hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at Job 14:14 "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including, Mr. Frank. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

“ In Loving Memory
As we mourn our dearly departed
With mixed emotion and broken hearted
We are never prepared to say good-bye
And the ultimate question is always why

*We'll question the wisdom of His ways
And thirst for answers in coming days
Somehow we seek to understand
Why life is forfeited upon demand*

*An eternal flame will light the way
As we embrace your memory every day
Ye servants who pass your earthly test
Grant unto them eteral rest
Rest in peace is the fervent vow
Of this earth that you leave now
We offer this prayer oh Lord above
"In Loving Memory" of Frank our friend
My cousin, whom we love.
With Sincere Sympathy*

“ May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Brown family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.###imported-begin##Ariel###imported-end##
