“ Dear Dooley family, it saddens me to learn of your recent loss. It is at times such as this that turning to the scriptures brings comfort. At Psalms 119: 50,52,76 we read, " This is my comfort in my affliction, for your own saying has preserved me alive. I have remembered your judicial decisions from time indefinate, O Jehovah, and I find comfort for myself. May your loving-kindness serve, please, to comfort me, according to your saying to your servant." Please accept my condolences.##imported-begin##Mrs. Jefferson##imported-end##

“ Losing a loved one in death is one of the most difficult experiences a person can have. We have to cope with the loss of our loved ones as well as deal with the loss of not having that cherished person in our lives. Please know that our grand creator Jehovah God loves you and promises that soon "death will be no more". (Revelation 21:4). He also offers you comfort during this difficult period of grief when he invites us to throw our anxieties upon him. "In my distress I kept calling upon Jehovah, And to my God I kept crying for help. Out of his temple he proceeded to hear my voice, And my own cry before him for help now came into his ears." (Psalms 18:6). My deepest sympathy to your family.##imported-begin##V Williams##imported-end##

“ To the Dooley family, please accept my sincere condolence. Words cannot express the pain we feel when we lose our dear loved ones. May you find comfort through the Word of God. "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart, and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."-Psalms 34:8.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Dooley family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##
