“ Dearest Nicole, John and Family;

We are deeply saddened at the news of losing Frank. In this world of uncertainty and unknowns we can feel good knowing God has added another angel to his flock for there is no doubt that Frank is resting comfortable in Heaven gathering his strength, getting prepared for his eternal life's work at the side of the Lord.

Frank was so likeable and such a good friend. He was truly a devoted family man, father, grandfather and a gentleman.

I am so sorry we will not be able to make the funeral services but we hope you know our prayers are always with you and the family.

We will miss everything about Frank; His strength, the laughter, his winning personality, his humbleness, his sportsmanship, his fairness and there was so many more attributes to Frank. The one that stands out the most is his kind voice and gentle spirit.

Please keep in touch and rest assured God does not make mistakes for He is all knowing. God bless you and we love you. Stay strong in God and everything will be alright.
