“ Dear Family: I was so sorry to read of the lost of your loved one, Mr. Freddie. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold our loved ones can be most difficult to bear. That is why Jesus Christ long ago boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29). Yes, we will be able to see our dead loved ones again! (John 11:38-44) Death will be destroyed (1 Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 25:8) and anything causing us distress will be eliminated forever (Revelation 21:4) I realize that words may offer little comfort at this moment, but I pray that in time, you will find comfort for your hearts and minds in what our Loving God has in store for us.(1 Corinthians 2:9) Yes, a beautiful tomorrow lies just ahead for He has promised us and He will not fail (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words from Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. “ My Godfather Freddie was a wonderful and loving person! I was so shocked to learn of his sudden passing, but so grateful that I was able to see his smiling face over the summer. May he rest in eternal peace, and I send my most sincere condolences to the entire Simon (immediate and extended) family and friends near and far.

I wasn't expecting for you to leave so soon, It's still a bit hard for me to take it in. I know you don't want me to hurt, so I'm staying strong. Continue to watch over us. I love you grand daddy -

“ We send our prayers and want the family to know that Freddie will be missed. Our association over a long period of years was nothing but good for his business and ours. We said we would celebrate our wedding anniversaries(the four of us) but never did. When this time of year rolled around we would think about you. May the Lord comfort you and the family, and just know that prayer can get you through this difficult time.
