“ *Daddy,
Its been a couple months since you went home. I am just eternally grateful that you've helped to develop the woman that I've become. You loved and supported me unconditionally. You showed me by example how to live life. I thank God everyday for you. I will forever cherish the fact that God loved me so much that he blessed me with you. I remain your loving daughter, Debbie##imported-begin##Debra Thomas##imported-end##*

“ In your darkest and deepest hour, your heart will still remember all the moments you shared with your dad. Sometimes you will think back and laugh and sometimes you will cry and be sad, but most of all, those are the memories that will last as long as you shall leave. He will always remain a part of the spirit that has driven you to be the (THE BABY, THE CHILD, THE TEENAGER, AND THE WOMEN) that you have become today. Walk tall in the spirit of his love, and with prayer you shall endure.##imported-begin##Evelyn Crawford-Tyler##imported-end##
