“ Man Bro it is so hard to face the fact that your gone. Since you've left me I been lost, we went through it all. People really don't understand the pain I feel. We were more than family we were best friends. Now that you gone I really don't want to be here, it's not even fun any more but I got to cause I want to make all our dreams come true. I'll never forget when we set down and talked about how messed up our lifes were, that was the realest conversation we ever had###imported-begin##Ranado Townsend###imported-end##

“ I came to your viewing today and I thought what a handsome young man. My son talked about how he just saw you a week prior at the baby shower.He can't get over that. I never got the chance to know you personally but we were connected through my son. Rest in Peace and watch over your family from a far. To your mother, I can't even begin to express my sympathy for your loss as our boys were the same age. I can't begin to think about the pain thats on your heart right now because no thoughts in this world are big enough to consume this kind of pain. My family and I will forever have your family in our hearts.##imported-begin##Ms.Necie (mother of Martel JR)##imported-end##

“ Ms. Townsend and family, it was a honor and pleasure working with Gabronze the past 7 months. His spirit was strong with lots of positive dreams that he wanted to accomplish. I can remember our last meeting on 2/20/08 when he shared with me his desire to get back into school and get more focused. He shared a desire to make you, his mother proud. Gabronze always talked about how much he loved his family and how you all stick together, no matter what. He also shared how the connectedness he felt to his family made him not give up on himself and taught him that he's never alone.

My prayers, and the prayers of Starr Commonwealth are with you and your family!

Love,

“ I wasn't in Gabronze's presence very often, but I remember how sweet he was each time I saw him. He was so silly, funny, and full of life. The most beautiful eyes I have ever seen on a young man. I know how loved he was and will always be. To the Townsend family, you are in my heart and prayers. Nancy you know if you need me I will be there.

Love Always,
