“ *To the Davis Family,
I'm very sorry for the death that you've experienced in your family recently. I've just been sharing a comforting scripture with you and similar individuals who have lost dear loved ones in death. John 11:25 says... "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."
I also agree with the bible when it says at Acts 24:15... that there will be a resurrection, of both the righteous and unrighteous!
My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.. please know that I' am thinking of you and your family during this hardship.
Thank you for your time,
Sincerely,
Caleb Anio###imported-begin##Caleb Anio###imported-end##*

“ I am so sorry to read of the loss of Mr. Davis. The Bible describes death as our enemy, but our Loving God Jehovah, promises to undo the tragic effects of death. In John 5:28-29, He also, promises to resurrect our loved ones back to life. We can look forward to a time when ‘death and pain will be no more’. (Revelation 21:4) May our Grand Creator Jehovah be your true source of comfort and hope during this difficult time, and may you receive the comfort you need to endure the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere condolence on the death of Mr. Davis. Although I didn't know him personally, I can still relate to your pain for I too have loss someone to death. Our Heavenly Father know that death is an enemy to us and cause great pain, That why he promised in His word the Bible: "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15)##imported-begin##Deborah Gipson##imported-end##
