“Penny, my heart goes out to you, Garrick and Jordan. My love is forever.

Dale

“Keep up the Good work He Would always Say”

“Me Too”

“Me Too”! Yes, that was his tag line. My Brother, a little guy, he could not have been more than 2 and I was only 5 years older. That’s about all he could say, between stuttering and being overcome with excitement, In other words “Me Too” I want to go.

My Brother he had a heart so big, a smile so bright. Just let me tag along, was his only thought and delight... Over fifty years I’ve tagged along watching my brother, Gary grow. While spreading his joy, as he planted love, usually every where he would go.

It seems like everybody loved my brother. Gary definitely had a marvelous gift, He could talk with anyone. He was a real charmer. But, Mom and Dad were too.

Gary possessed a very rare ability. My brother could sense and feel a person’s joy or pain,

Just as if - it was his very own. He could, and would actually cry at the drop of a hat, when his heart was truly touched.

My brother was good, he would tell me all the time, “Big brother, you taught me everything I know! “Really! I would say” with a little disbelief. But still, he made me feel like I was Ten Feet Tall. Yes, wisdom, grace, and poise, with a flare, all those moves. God put them there, Right at his finger tips.

Helping hands, need a friend? Gary! I MISS YOU!!! His friends would always say.

And let's not talk about, hard worker, Gary, practically built Great Lake Steel. With his bare hands, double shifts, at night, alone, one man, all by himself. John Henry might have been a mighty steel driving man? But, he had nothin' on my baby Brother.

There is just not a enough time to list all that this one man accomplished. Wise Counsel, Master Craftsman. Custom Cars, and Mr. GQ in person, himself. Yes, Gary, my brother truly left his mark for all to see. Not only on the world, but surly in our hearts.

My heart overflows with love, and respect, for my brother extraordinaire, kind, loving, gentle, and did I say trustworthy? Yes, Gary, My Brother was a good man indeed.

A committed, devoted, husband to Penny, a nurturing, loving, and teaching, Father for his sons Garrick and Jordon. A most loving Brother to Sheila, Kim, and Dale, and the legendary loving Son of William and Jean Mitchell.

Of course, like brothers do, we laughed, we talked, often we spoke of our hopes and dreams. Sometimes, together we even cried. With no shame or ill at ease, we were brotherly close.

Yes, Gary was someone very special to us. There's something to be said at the end of a long hard day. When the voice of my brother says, "Keep up the good work". Until we meet again

We love you Gary! Yes, and "Me Too".
