“ *I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.
It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear.
Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”.
Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29) Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”
May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”*

“ Dear Family: Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your loved one, George. Regardless of age, gender or race, it is always devastating when we lose a loved one to death. (Psalm 89:48) May your hearts and minds be comforted in knowing that he is in Jehovah God's memory now and is waiting to be called from the depths of the earth by God's Son, Jesus Christ (John 5:28,29). Yes, we can confidently look forward to the future when death will be gone forever! (Isaiah 25:8) What an indescribable joy and blessing it will be when we can then rightly ask: "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting? (1 Corinthians 15:55)##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
