“ Dear Gilliam family, please accept my sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. George Edward. I am writing to share with you the bible's wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14) "If an able body man dies, can he live again..." This hope is held out to all mankind, including Mr. George Edward. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.

“ May the hope at Isaiah 25:8 bring the Gilliam family much comfort, here God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from all the earth. This is something that we can look forward to in the near future.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: When someone we love dies it truly breaks our hearts. We try to accept it as 'a part of life' as we struggle to move on without them in our lives. Fortunately, our loving Creator has promised that soon such events as death will soon no longer haunt mankind and separate us from those we love. Jehovah God has promised to destroy death (Isaiah 25:8) and to restore our loved ones to us who have died by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29). May these Bible truths bring comfort and reassurance to your hearts that you can see your precious loved one, George, again. It is Jehovah God's desire that you do (Job 14:14,15) and he has promised that you will. (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ May Jehovah, the God of all comfort, give you the strength you need to endure the days ahead. Death was not what our Grand Creator intended for us - just to live a few years and die. HE created perfect humans and put them in a beautiful paradise. God's purpose will come to fruition. He also will help us if we grab hold of his hand and allow him to get us up each day. Revelations 21:3-5 and Isaiah 41:10 & 13.##imported-begin##Mrs. Malone##imported-end##
