“ I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.

It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.

And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. Many are resting now, until their name is called in the “resurrection”. Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus’] voice and come out.” (John 5:21, 28, 29)

Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more.....”

May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he “cannot lie.”

“ Gail, April and SirGerald; you have my heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your husband and father. Jerry was from the old neighborhood; he and my sister Carol were childhood friends and shared many wonderful times. I know she's glad to see her friend in Heaven.##imported-begin##Deborah Franklin-McElrath##imported-end##

“ Dear Family: It is not easy to cope with the death of a loved one and it can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives. Although it may be hard to contemplate or even envision at present, still, Our Loving God (Psalm 83:18) has promised that soon he will 'wipe the tears from all faces and 'death will be no more (Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 25:8). Not only that, but he also promises to resurrect our loved ones who have died, including your loved one, Mr. Gerald. May this Scriptural thought help to lessen the pain in your hearts today and in the days ahead, knowing our Father will do all that he has promised, for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.###imported-begin###joyce jones###imported-end##
