“ *I am sorry to hear of the loss of Greg. The bible promises everlasting life. Jehovah always tells the truth, he does not lie. Greg can rest now. We must continue to struggle to survive this wicked world, with the crime, violence, war, sickness and death. God did not intend for us to live this way. The bible gives us much hope and comfort ". 2 Corinthian 1:3-4. Jehovah is the, "God of all comfort" and HE helps us understand how He and Jesus Christ feel about death. Death is an enemy that pursues us all. None of us can out run it. Jehovah is far more powerful than death. Jehovah is our rescuer who has already shown (by Jesus resurrection) that he can defeat this enemy. 1 Corinthians 15:26 (As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing). Isaiah 26:19 "your dead ones will live ...they will rise up". We WILL be reunited with our loved ones by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth in peace and happiness in the very near future. John 5:28-29, Jesus said "all those in the memorial tombs will come out" and there will be "a resurrection of righteous and unrighteous". “ Dearest Family and Friends,

The Lord is our source of strength and comfort on this day of transition. Honoring the past with Gregory and embracing the future we ask God to see us through. I will always cherish Gregory, remembering he loved life and lived to the fullest. Below is a poem that I think describes his zest for life:

*Do Not Stand At My Grave and Weep
By Mary Elizabeth Frye*

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.*

Love,

Jacque###imported-begin##Jacqueline F. Williams##imported-end##

“ Gregory,

I love you so much!! I can not stop crying. Our time was to short. I will remember and cherish all of the memories we shared. I will never forget all the car trips to Florida, St. Louis, Chicago and Gary Indiana. Dad and mom would be in the front; you and me in the back seat. When you started driving, it was you and dad in the front and mom and I in the back. By the time I started driving, you were out the car all together.

Just two weeks ago you talked to me about moving mom off Stanley. I am going to work on this request.

You took good care of mom; you made sure she took her medicine and made sure she received her meals. Her clothing and business was very organized. It is going to be hard to fill you shoes, however, I promise to take care of mom.

I will always remember and love you!!

Your Little Sister
