“ My condolences go out to the Ingram family. I have known Jeff for a long time. He used to come on our street (Braile) all the time to hang out. Please know that you are all in my prayers.##imported-begin##Karyne Brown Worthy##imported-end##

“ My family moved to this NW neighborhood in the early seventies . So those that have been around know that most of us, still in the neighborhood and in our forties today ,were just “the neighborhood kids”. Some called him “Gus” I called him “Jeff”, we all called him “spoiled”☐(smile); not in a hateful or envious way. My condolences and prays to all of you Jeff touched, especially his family, during this difficult time. May God continue to give you strength.

“ My sincere condolences to the Ingram family. May the God of all comfort ease your mind and heart in the days ahead. Jehovah has promised a resurrection of the dead (Acts 24:15) and he promised, the time is coming when: "...death will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry nor pain will be anymore". (Revelation 21:3.4) Mr. Ingram, Sr. and many others have the opportunity to be resurrected to life on a paradise earth soon to be. God cannot lie (Titus 2:1). Trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding; he is the one who created us and knows our DNA to bring us back to life. It's as good as done! Keep His words close to your heart as you treasure the memory of him.##imported-begin##Liz##imported-end##
